HelpPRO Bucks the Trend With Focus to Help People Find Best Match Mental Health Services

While other Therapist Finders focus on helping therapists market their practices, HelpPRO's mission, for 20 years now, is to improve public access to mental health clinicians. Our vision is that every American can find mental health services to meet their needs.

HelpPRO serves you, our listed providers, best by remaining true to this mission and vision. By listing your practice with HelpPRO, if you help just one person you otherwise would not have, we thank you.

HelpPRO's reach on the web and in the community is both broad and deep. When people say "I found you on the web" it is often HelpPRO making the connection. In the community HelpPRO partners with organizations such as the Autism Society, National Suicide Prevention Lifeline, the National MS Society, and others who use HelpPRO to make referrals. The list continues to build.

Please help build our community to help more people:

HelpPRO Celebrates 20 Years Bucking the Trend Ahead of the Curve

HelpPRO started as a human service directory in 1995 accessed by dial-up modem. We were innovators, but people were not comfortable using computers to get information. You remember your rolodex. That was what people used.

Those early days of computing technology are like the old dial telephone. I still have one upstairs. My grandson is fascinated.

Where will we be in ten years? Still caring about people for sure.

Future therapy will be digital - clients will connect with you at a moment's notice through wearable video. Charges will tabulate electronically by the minute.

So, relish those hours sitting face-to-face with your clients. These are the good old days. But, when did you last try a dial telephone?

Warm Regards,

Bill

HelpPRO Customer Service Cares

Did you know HelpPRO Customer Service provides free telephone referrals? It's one more way HelpPRO works behind the scenes to connect you with potential clients. Our trained staff search the HelpPRO database to find the best matching providers for a caller's specific needs. We also receive referral requests by email and help people use our therapist searches at HelpPRO.com.

Many people who contact HelpPRO don't have the means or physical ability to travel far to see a therapist. In those cases HelpPRO helps find providers who make home visits or provide telephone or video counseling. We receive ongoing requests for home therapy visits through our partnership with the National MS Society. If you are able to see clients in their homes, please be sure to indicate that in the Accessibility section of your listing.
